

I put my name on the Do Not Call list as soon as I heard about it. I remain firm in my stance to not be bothered by telemarketers in my home. How can this be an issue with freedom of speech if people volunteer to put themselves on the list. They are free to speak to someone who WANTS to listen. Don't we get any rights as consumers? What about OUR freedom of speech - I say keep the list!!!